Dear Classmates,

FIFTY YEARS!!! CINQUANTE ANS!!! FUNFZIG JAHRE!!! CINCUENTA ANOS!!!
50!!! FIVE-O!!! Ten 5-year Reunions!!!

No matter how you express it nor how many exclamation points you use, it still doesn't capture how monumental this year is for all of us. Just think about it!! Fifty years since we all left St. Joe's to begin our adult life's journey and now we've reached one of the biggest milestones on that trip. Something this huge needs to be celebrated with gusto and your Reunion Committee is already at work on plans for another memorable weekend bash.

If you have joined us at either or both of the last two Reunions in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, you know how the Atlantic Sands Hotel proved to be a great location for our get-togethers. The extra special amenity there has been our exclusive use of the Beach House as our hospitality venue for the weekend. The Beach House can accommodate all of us with ease and it's a great place for relaxing with classmates before and after the main Reunion event on Saturday evening.

Because the Reunion Committee received overwhelmingly positive reviews about the past two events at Rehoboth Beach, we unanimously agreed that the Atlantic Sands is the perfect choice for hosting our 50th Anniversary Reunion there.

Before we give you the important details, just a brief note about how we plan to spread the word about the 50th. We're trying to keep up with technology (while also trying to keep costs down) and so we hope to use a combination of e-mail, our Bison website (bisons67.camden.nj.us), and Facebook as our primary means of communication. For those classmates who can't be reached via the Internet, we will rely on the US Postal Service. So, please don't forget to let us know about changes in your e-mail address between now and the Reunion. Also, we have set up a g-mail account for the 50th and we'll be asking everyone to use it as indicated below (section titled "VERY IMPORTANT!").
